Malaysia's economy expanded 4.9 per cent after recording a growth of 4.5 per cent during the first quarter of 2019. All sectors in the economy posted a positive growth primarily supported by Services and Manufacturing sectors. On the expenditure side, the growth was driven by the sustained performance in Private final consumption expenditure and external trade.

Performance of the economy

Services grew 6.1 per cent backed by Wholesale & retail trade, Information & communication and Food & beverage and accommodation. Manufacturing sector increased to 4.3 per cent contributed by Electrical, electronic & optical products and Petroleum, chemical, rubber & plastic products. Meanwhile, Mining and quarrying sector rebounded to 2.9 per cent driven by the recovery in natural gas production. Agriculture sector posted a growth of 4.2 per cent following a moderation in Oil palm and contraction in Fishing and Forestry & logging. Construction sector grew marginally at 0.5 per cent contributed by Civil engineering and Specialised construction activities.

Private final consumption expenditure remained as the main anchor to the economy with a growth of 7.8 per cent followed by external trade which recorded a strong growth of 22.9 per cent in this quarter. Nevertheless, Gross fixed capital formation recorded a marginal negative of 0.6 per cent.
